

<=Crown (cymatium)

Cornice

<=Facia

Entablature

<=Scrolled Modillion with Acanthus

<=Egg/Dart Moulding

<=Dentil

<=Running Coin

Frieze

3 Parts
Cornice
Frieze
Architrave

<=Taenia

3 Facias

<=Lamb's Tongue

<=Bead & Barrel

Architrave

<=Concave Abacus

Central Fleuron
or Flower

<=Echinus

Helices

Caulicoli

Capital

The variation
Tivoli
Temple uses a Hibiscus Flower

Decorated with 3 Rows of Acanthus Leaves

Column

<=Astragal

Rounded
Flutes ==>

Shaft Enthasis is the Taper that runs 2-3rds
down the column shaft
last third is straight

Shaft

3 Parts
Capital
Stylus (shaft)
Base

<=Torus

<=Plinth

Attic Base

* Note Greek Doric has no base

* Source: Vitruvius an architect 1st Century BC, his works "De architectura" motto strength-utility-beauty

